

Ep 33 | The Edge Where Two Worlds Touch with Gloria Karpinski

Today's episode was recorded in January of 2023 and it is a wonderful conversation I had with one of my most favorite people, author and spiritual teacher, Gloria Karpinski.

I met Gloria at the end of my 1st year of seminary when she came to speak at the Ordination Ceremony for The New Seminary at St. John the Divine. She became a trusted mentor and friend – and I went on to produce + narrate the audio version of her book, Where Two Worlds Touch. (A short clip from the narration has been inserted in one of the original commercial breaks)

It was such a JOY to revisit the conversation! I am so deeply moved by Gloria's depth of wisdom, her connection to spirit, and her practical, down-to-earth and gentle teaching style. We reminisced, laughed, told stories, and Gloria weaves her very powerful messages from spirit throughout our conversation. Her words are more prescient than ever.

In this episode we touched on...

- Remembering our true identity: I AM a being of Light vs the roles we play every day.
- The calling of community + mentorship
- The centerpiece of our evolutionary spiral is the restoration of the Divine Feminine in the human consciousness.
- Her book, Where Two Worlds Touch, is a model of the concept of 'the edge of every day.' Our greatest edge is the fear of change.
- Intentionality of incarnation: The four types of energies to make evolutionary turnings.
- Gloria shares how her work with Spirit and Life Attunements expanded and evolved.
- The rise of the Divine Feminine and our understanding of YINness.
- What is a pragmatic visionary? What is paradox?

- All this and so much more...

Ep 33: The Edge Where Two Worlds Meet with Spiritual Teacher + Author Gloria Karpinski

The image is a podcast cover for 'The Edge of Everyday' with Sandra Bargman. It features two circular portraits: one of a woman with long blonde hair on the left and one of an older woman with grey hair on the right. The background is light grey with a microphone on a stand and a white audio waveform. The text is in blue and black.
